

VOCAL COMPETITION COACHING

Deirdre prepares students for major vocal competitions in the USA, and Internationally. She works with students at all levels and with all needs. Students work with her online and in-person at her studio. Some of her students have ended up placing runner up or winning the competition. In some cases students have even won the audience prize. Students are mentored and groomed as to what judges look for, how to connect with the audience, how to move on stage, etc. One of her online students Clynton Fernandes seen in the picture here, placed 2nd in the iSING World Competition in 2018 in Paris, France. Sessions can be in-person as well as online. Sessions are a minimum of 8 for a duration of 1 hour per session.
